MERCANTILE LIBRARY.

REGULATIONS OF THE LIBRARY.

1. THE Library will be opened for the delivery and reception of books from 8½ o'clock, A.M., to 9 o'clock, P.M., daily, excepting Sundays, public holidays, the day of the annual election, and such other days as the Beard may direct.

2. Books must in all cases be charged on the accounts of members before they are taken from the Library.

3. But one book, or two volumes of the same work, if a 12mo, or smaller, will be delivered to any member, excepting life members, and members holding extra subscriptions.

4. No book can be retained from the Library longer than two weeks. But any book (excepting new books) may be renewed for one week on application to the Librarian. New books can be retained but one week, and without privilege of renewal.

5. Members retaining books from the Library beyond the time specified in the Regulations will be liable to a fine of three cents per day on every book so retained, and the cost of sending therefor.

6. If any book is injured or lost, the person to whom such book is charged must replace the same, or pay an equivalent in money. If the book be one of a set, he shall receive the odd volumes at an appraisal, to be fixed by the Library Committee.

7. No member can take out books on another's account, except by a written order; and if any books, thus taken out, are lost or injured, the person to whom they are charged will be held responsible.

REGULATIONS OF THE READING ROOMS.

1. The Reading Rooms will be opened from 7½ o'clock, A.M., to 10 o'clock, P.M., daily, excepting Sundays, public holidays, the day of the annual election, and such other days as the Board may direct. But during the months of November, December, January, and February, the opening hour will be 8 o'clock.

2. Only members of the Association are entitled to the privileges of the Reading Rooms.

3. Any member of the Association may introduce to the Reading Rooms a friend, not a resident of Brooklyn; whose name must be registered by the Librarian, and who will receive a card of admission for four weeks. Persons thus introduced may consult books in the Library, but will not be allowed to remove any books from the rooms.

4. No smoking or conversation is permitted in the Reading Rooms, and it is expected that gentlemen will remove their hats upon entering.

5. No magazine or newspaper shall be taken from the Reading Rooms without special permission, on penalty of expulsion upon detection; and the same penalty shall attach to cutting, marking, or otherwise defacing said magazines and newspapers.
